

Contents

Editorial Advisory Board, vii

Contributors, viii

Introduction, ix

PART ONE: VARIATION

Variation in the Deaf Community:

Gay, Lesbian, and Bisexual Signs, 3

Mala Silverman Kleinfeld and Noni Warner

PART TWO: MULTILINGUALISM

Everyone Here Speaks Sign Language, Too:

A Deaf Village in Bali, Indonesia, 39

Jan Branson, Don Miller, and I Gede Marsaja, with the assistance of I Wayan Negara

PART THREE: LANGUAGE IN DEAF EDUCATION

Bilingual Deaf Education in Venezuela:

Linguistic Comments on the Current Situation, 61

Alejandro Oviedo

What's a Clock? "Suppose the alarm lights are flashing . . .":

Sociolinguistic and Educational Implications of Comparing ASL
and English Word Definitions, 80

Sara Schley

PART FOUR: DISCOURSE ANALYSIS

Initiation in Visually Constructed Dialogue:

Reading Books with Three- to Eight-Year-Old Students
Who Are Deaf and Hard of Hearing, 109

Susan M. Mather

Pragmatic Aspects of the Interrogative Form in Italian Sign Language, 132

Pietro Celo

The Tobacco Story: Narrative Structure in an American Sign Language Story, 152

Julie M. Wilson

PART FIVE: SECOND LANGUAGE LEARNING

Just How Hard Is It to Learn ASL?

The Case for ASL as a Truly Foreign Language, 183

Rhonda Jacobs

Index, 227