

Contents

Author's Preface	ix
Introduction
Kristen C. Harmon	xi
1 An Illness, and Its Result	1
2 Mr. Raymond Visits the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb	6
3 Carrie's Life in the Institution Commences	9
4 The Commencement of School Duties	13
5 Learning New Lessons	21
6 Thanksgiving Day	26
7 Promoted	28
8 Christmas at the Institution	31
9 The New Year—Encountering Difficulties	37
10 Some Glimpses into the Condition and Doings of Deaf-Mutes	43
11 Easter Sunday	49
12 The Annual Examination	51
13 Going Home to Spend Vacation	55
14 School Duties Resumed	60
15 Dozing, and Other Incidents	63
16 Some Unexpected Events	67
17 A Picnic, and How It Ended	73
18 Closing Exercises of the Term	77

19	The Opening of Another Term	84
20	The Magic-Lantern Entertainment	89
21	Friendships	91
22	The Ending of Another Year	96
23	Public Exhibitions	98
24	Spiritual Interests	101
25	Some Birthday Customs	104
26	The Sad End of Two Runaways	109
27	Some Happenings	111
28	The Library—Its Contents—Their Uses and Value	116
29	Some Little Incidents	121
30	A Description of the New Building	124
31	Persons and Organizations	127
32	Uncounted Blessings	132
33	Pleasures, Tribulations, and Triumphs	137
34	Winning a Prize	142
35	In the Academic Class	146
36	A Pleasant Surprise	150
37	A Departure—Compositions	155
38	Scenes—Gloomy and Gay	160
39	Events of the Passing Time	166
40	Harsh Treatment, and Its Results	170
41	Another Term	174
42	Conclusion	179